Shri Alok Bakshi, counsel for the petitioner.

Kum. A.S. Chouhan, PL for the State.

Shri Ashish Shrivstava, counsel for the respondents.

Though the matter is listed for admission, considering the limited nature of the relief claimed and with the consent of the learned counsel for the parties, the matter is being disposed of.

The grievance of the writ petitioner is to the inaction on the part of respondent no.1 in not considering and disposing of her representations, copies whereof are Annexures P/6 and P/10 to the writ petition. Accordingly, she has approached this Court with a prayer to command the respondents to dispose of the said representations within a stipulated period. Notices were issued, but replies have not been filed.

Having heard learned counsel and considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this writ petition is disposed of by directing the respondent no.1/State to dispose of the representations (Annexures P/6 & P/10) within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication/receipt of the order. It is made clear that this Court is not expressing any opinion on the merits of the petitioner's case and that representation will have to be decided by the concerned authority on its own merits.

Consequently, I.A.No.2711/2003 for urgent also stand disposed of.
